

Golden Apple Terms and Conditions

1. The promoter of the “Golden Apple Video Competition” (the Competition) is the Australian Universal Federation of Education and Culture (AUF).
2. Entry to the Competition is open to member school teachers.
3. Entry to the Competition is free.
4. To enter the Competition, entrants must fill in the online application form available at the official website of AUF, www.unifed.com.au. The entries are required to be submitted online together with the online application form.
5. Entries must be received by the AUF by 12:00am ACST on the final submission day. All entries received after that date and time will be deemed invalid. Late entries will not be accepted and the AUF is not responsible for entries lost or delayed or not received for any reason.
6. All entries must be in .mp4, .mpeg, .wmv, mov or .avi file format.
7. Each entrant warrants that all details provided in their entry are true and correct; and the entry entered is their own original product and work, and does not infringe the rights (including copyright) of any other person.
8. Each entrant agrees to indemnify the AUF in relation to any loss or damage resulting from any breach of these above warranties.
9. Entries must not contain anything defamatory, obscene, illegal or otherwise inappropriate as may be deemed by the Promoter.
10. All entries received by the AUF which satisfy the requirements set out in these Terms and Conditions will be accepted into the Competition.
11. The judges will determine one winner, one runner up and one 3rd place per category. The judges’ decision will be final and no correspondence will follow this final determination.
12. A prize may not be transferred to another party or exchanged.
13. The AUF may use any information (including personal information) provided by any person who submits an entry to contact them for any reason in relation to the Competition.
14. All entries become the property of the AUF. Each entrant agrees that the AUF may at its discretion use any entry for publicity and any other purposes relating to the Competition, and for future promotional, marketing and publicity purposes in any media worldwide, without notice and without any fee being paid to the entrant.
15. The AUF may publish a selection of all submitted videos on its website.
16. The decision of the AUF in relation to any aspect of the Competition will be final and will be binding on every person who enters the competition. No correspondence will be entered into.
17. To the full extent permitted by the law, the AUF will not be liable for any injury, damages, expenses or loss whatsoever (whether direct or consequential) to persons or property as a result of any person entering the Competition or accepting or using any prize, including without limitation the non-receipt of the prize.
18. If there is an event which prevents or hinders the AUF’s conduct of the Competition or the AUF’s ability to deliver the prize to the winner, then the AUF may in its discretion cancel the Competition. Further, the AUF may at its sole discretion recommence it under the same or similar conditions.
19. By submitting an entry to the Competition, each entrant agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions. The AUF may at its discretion refuse to award any prize to any entrant who fails to comply with these Terms and Conditions.
